BOMBAY CAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Friday, 2d December 1814.

BOMBAY GAZETTE.
EXTRAORDINARY.

FRIDAY, 2d DECIMBER 1814.

The Prince of Wales Cruizer—Lieutenant Mailfard, arrived this morning from the Gulph, and brings with her news from England down; as we believe, to the 20th of July.

The Princess Charlotte of Wales it is said has positively refused to marry the Hereditary Prince of Orange, and Mr. Whitbread and Mr. Tierney applaud her conduct in doing.

The Emperor of Russia left London on the 27th, for Holland and arrived at Cuxhaven on the 29th, of June.—He was going to Petersburgh, where it was expected he would stay a few weeks and then proceed to Vienna.

The Duchess of Oldenburgh had also left England as had the King of Prussia; the latter had arrived at Paris. The Ex Empress Maria Louisa was for the benefit of her health to leave the Imperial court, on the 1st of July, for the baths of Aix near Chambery.—Her Son was to remain at Schonbrunn.—The Pope had arrived at Rome.

On the 24th there was a great naval review at Portsmouth. The Prince Regent, the King and Princes of Prussia with a numerous cortége embarked on board the Royal Sovereign Yacht. The Emperor Alexander was on board the Imgregnable with the Duke of Clarence. The fleet consisted of fifteen sail of the line and as many frigates. On returning in the evening to Government house the above illustrious personages to their agreeable surprize found the Duke of Wellington there, and who had arrived during their absence from fleet. The illustrious general dined with the Prince when he appeared at the Balcony in their company the populace saluted him with the utmost enthusiasm.

The Duke of Infantado has been made, by the Spanish Regency, President of the council: the first Grandee of Spain who had filled that office since The Duke of St. Charles was [illegible]. The cause of the Marquis [illegible]

The Duke [illegible] 25th of June was at the [illegible] from Portsmouth. The [illegible] him in the same box. The applause [illegible] ed are not to be described.

The name of Lord Cochrane had been raised from the list of captains of the Navy, but it was reported the Prince would remit the punishment of standing in the Pillory.

On the 25th there was a review of 7000 men on post down hill, after which the whole party set off for Goodwood where they breakfasted, from thence they went to Petworth & dined with Ld Egremont whose magnificent and hospitable roof the Emperor and King of Prussia left for Brighton between eleven and twelve at night. The Prince remained behind.

HEADS OF INTELLIGENCE.

The marriage of the princess Charlotte broken off, She first insisted that she never should leave England, which was granted, She next insisted that the Prince of Orange never should quit the Kingdom, which he would not consent to. He had left England.

The King of Spain had rejected the constitution sent him by the Regency, and being joined by the army and all the nobles, had put an end to the authority of the Regency and Cortez which were prescribed,—He proclaimed that he would call a legitimate Cortez upon his arrival at Madrid,—The Popes nuncio was recalled, and of course the inquisition will be re-established.

The Prince Regent of Portugal intended to remain at the Brazils, and a regency was to be appointed for Portugal consisting of his son and the Infanta.

25,000 men had sailed for America the first division under Gen. Picton to join Prevoft in Canada, to complete his army to 20,000. The second division under Lord Hill, to land in Chesepeake Bay—both Armies to meet at Washington.

By letters from the united states dated the 8th of June it appears that the greatest activity pervaded the naval arsenals of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, in order to accelerate the building of three's 74; nineteen frigates were also on the Stoeks.

The Essex frigate taken by two English Vessels, apparently sloops after a dreadful Engagement of 1 hour and 55 minutes; she lost above 150 men.

Norway blockaded by Sweden England and Russia, to force her submission to Sweden.

America declared in Blockade.

The General congress was to assemble at Vienna on the 1st October and Lords Castlereagh and Aberdeen are to be the ministers on the part of Great Britain.

BOMBAY.—Printed for the Proprietors by M. DA CRUZ, at No. 10 Military Square.

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra on 28 June, 2017

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra
on 28 June, 2017